

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

Hill, Miller, M. D., S. P. Westcott, Esq.,
M. Dickson, Esq.,
James K. Cook,
Jesse F. McCreesh, Esq., and
W. V. Roeder,
Rev. K. M. Chapman,
D. B. Leight, Esq.,
C. C. Smith, Esq.,
W. E. Oliver, Esq.,
S. S. Latham, Esq.

WALKER & GAR
No. 631 MAIN STREET,
Louisville, Ky.
We were now in receipt of a portion of our winter stock of Canadian goods, which will include of Winter Coats, suits, trousers, hats, and all kinds of clothing, such as the most prominent over, by the best makers in the city of New York.
The same have given a good review. We have been called upon as low as any house in the city.
Call and examine.

RECHERCHES! RECHERCHES!
JUST RECEIVED—1,000 Swedish Leather Third size, worst case, between Market and William Young offers his services to Physicians in the vicinity of Louisville, as lecturer, Lecturer Bleeker.
Mrs. Young, in the same line of business, can be consulted at her residence, No. 100 N. Third St.
P. Physicians and others in the country, can procure the same at the lowest prices.

317
 318
 319
 320
 321 322
 323
 324 325
 326
 327
 328
 329
 330
 331
 332
 333
 334
 335
 336
 337 338
 339 340
 341
 342
 343
 344 345 346 347 348 349
 350 351
 352
 353
 354
 355
 356
 357
 358
 359 360 361
 362
 363
 364 365
 366
 367
 368
 369
 370
 371
 372 373 374
 375
 376
 377
 378
 379
 380
 381
 382
 383
 384
 385
 386
 387
 388
 389
 390
 391
 392
 393
 394
 395
 396
 397
 398 399
 400
 401
 402
 403 404
 405
 406
 407
 408
 409
 410
 411 412
 413
 414
 415
 416
 417
 418
 419
 420
 421
 422
 423 424
 425
 426 427
 428 429 430 431
 432 433
 434
 435
 436
 437
 438
 439
 440
 441
 442 443
 444
 445
 446
 447
 448 449
 450
 451
 452
 453 454
 455
 456
 457 458
 459
 460
 461 462
 463
 464
 465
 466
 467
 468 469
 470
 471
 472
 473
 474
 475
 476 477
 478
 479
 480
 481
 482 483
 484
 485 486
 487
 488
 489
 490
 491
 492 493
 494
 495
 496 497
 498
 499 500 501 502
 503 504
 505
 506
 507
 508
 509
 510
 511
 512
 513
 514
 515 516
 517
 518
 519
 520
 521 522
 523
 524 525
 526
 527
 528
 529
 530 531
 532
 533
 534 535
 536
 537
 538
 539
 540
 541
 542
 543 544
 545
 546
 547 548 549
 550
 551 552
 553
 554
 555
 556 557
 558 559
 560
 561
 562
 563
 564
 565
 566
 567
 568 569
 570
 571
 572
 573 574
 575
 576
 577
 578
 579 580 581
 582
 583
 584 585 586
 587
 588
 589
 590
 591
 592
 593
 594
 595
 596
 597
 598
 599
 600
 601
 602
 603
 604
 605
 606
 607
 608
 609
 610
 611
 612
 613
 614
 615
 616
 617
 618 619
 620
 621 622
 623
 624
 625
 626 627
 628
 629
 630 631
 632
 633 634
 635
 636
 637
 638
 639
 640
 641
 642 643
 644 645
 646
 647
 648
 649
 650
 651
 652
 653 654
 655
 656
 657 658
 659 660 661 662
 663
 664 665
 666
 667
 668
 669
 670
 671
 672
 673
 674
 675
 676
 677
 678
 679
 680
 681
 682 683
 684 685
 686
 687
 688 689 690
 691
 692
 693
 694
 695
 696
 697 698
 699
 700
 701
 702
 703
 704
 705
 706
 707
 708 709 710
 711
 712
 713
 714
 715
 716
 717
 718
 719
 720
 721
 722
 723
 724 725
 726
 727
 728 729
 730
 731
 732
 733 734
 735
 736 737 738
 739
 740
 741 742
 743
 744 745 746
 747 748
 749
 750
 751
 752
 753
 754
 755
 756 757
 758 759
 760
 761
 762
 763 764
 765
 766
 767
 768
 769
 770
 771
 772
 773
 774
 775
 776
 777 778
 779
 780
 781
 782
 783 784
 785 786
 787
 788 789
 790 791
 792 793 794 795 796
 797 798
 799 800
 801
 802 803 804 805 806
 807
 808
 809
 810
 811 812
 813
 814
 815
 816
 817
 818
 819
 820 821
 822 823
 824
 825 826
 827 828

DISSOLUTION.
THE COPARTNERSHIP heretofore existing between the aforesaid JAMES LOW & CO. is thereby dissolved by mutual consent. Neither party is authorized the name of the firm in liquidation. The books and concerns will remain in the hands in which they have been doing business.
JAS. LOW.
Louisville, Oct. 13, 1852. JON. T. TOMPKINS.

COPARTNERSHIP.
THE undersigned having purchased from Mr. Tompkins an interest in the stock of Goodrich & Co. of the firm of Low, Low & Co. of Louisville, Ky., do hereby certify that the same has been duly assigned to them, and that they are now the owners of the same.

wholesale D. Y. Goods business at the same stand der the same firm.
JAS. LOW,
JOHN TOMPKINS,
CHARLES EATON.
Oct. 13, 1892. [620]

A. O. RUNYAN,
MERCHANT TAILOR
No. 449 MAIN STREET,
HAS received a large and superior
CLOTHS, CASSIMERES AND VESTS
French and English Cloths, Doeskins and Cassimeres of the finest fabric in existence, plain and figured Vests and Pinsters.
Vestings, in all the latest and superior quality.

the quality, in beautiful patterns, of Party and Vestings. Overcoats of all kinds and colors, designs, all of which I have prepared to make up in the style—a style to suit the taste of the customer in the prevailing fashion. He will sell upon the credit terms for cash and to punctual buyers. I can sell the same quality of goods at a less price if he will.

Q. The very liberal patronage he has received is the best evidence of the quality of his goods, and a work. Citizens and strangers are respectfully invited to examine the goods at 419 Main street, where acknowledged taste and judgment are buyers' choice and introducing their friends, knowing he pleases to quality, style and price.

(continued in column 2).
 best quality at a low price. Ladies' and Children's Silk and Gingham Undergarments; gloves of every very rich Scarlet and Cravats; Under and House Linen.

Patronage respectfully solicited.

CLASS STAINING MANUFACTURE
 BULLITT STREET.
 To Steamboat Owners, Captains, Architects, Committees of Public Buildings and Manufacturers of Railroad Cars.

THE subscribers, the oldest and the first

Churches wanting windows filled with Leaded Glass in the modern eastern style, can be accommodated at New York prices, adding transportation.

Specimens can be seen at their establishment 111 Street.

Circles from New York to Buffalo and Cincinnati to New Orleans can be given if required. They solicit a share of public patronage.

cc14 ddm J. C. MILLER

PLATED Ware.—I have just opened a stock of plated ware, consisting of Tea

LOOKING GLASSES.—50 dozen mahogany Looking Glasses for sale by
O. T. BULL

THE DEMOCRAT.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
HARNEY & HUGHES.
Office on Third street, East side, between Market and Jefferson.

Democratic Ticket, 1852.

FOR PRESIDENT,
FRANKLIN PIERCE, of N. Hampshire.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
WM. R. KING, of Alabama.

MEMBERS OF THE STATE AT LARGE.
JOHN W. STUBBS, of Kentucky.
BENJAMIN L. HARRIS, of Virginia.

3d District—W. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
4th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
5th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
6th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
7th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
8th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
9th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
10th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.

AND NORTH, SO SOUTH, NO EAST, NO WEST
UNDER THIS CONSTITUTION, BUT A SACRED MAINTENANCE OF THE COMMON BOND AND TRUE DEVOTION TO THE COMMON BROTHERHOOD.—FRANKLIN PIERCE.

FOR CONGRESS—7th District.

Culvin Sanders,
OF SHELBY COUNTY.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1852.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION

Takes place on Tuesday, the 2nd day of November. The polls open at 6 o'clock
A. M., and close at 7 o'clock P. M.

We publish in another column, the development of a wonderful fraud attempted by the hired emissaries of whiggery in Ohio. Just read and say if a party so utterly abandoned, is fit to have the control of this government. They believe that shallowness is a passport to popular favor, and that any fraud upon the people is justifiable. We have the entire circular before us, and we shall not fill our columns with it. It is a mean, mendacious, sneaking attack upon Pierce,
and a commendation of Scott as particularly partial to Catholics, and ending with the following hypothetical, lying and sneaking paragraph:

"This appeal is confidential to Catholics, and comes from one of those who from childhood
watched with interest the progress of the church,
and who are only desirous to further its advancement and prosperity."

This is but a development of the scheme concocted by that Philadelphia caucus. Emissaries are to be hired to slip round and lie worse than the father of lies, in a secret manner. The abolitionists and Catholics are the folks to be seduced
by these private emissaries. Now we appeal to all republican Catholics and Protestants to give an emphatic rebuke to this infamous attempt.

DEMOCRATS!

The Presidential election is at hand. Your country calls you once more to rally to the support of your time honored and ever cherished principles; once more to triumph with those principles, which have given to us freedom as a people, and greatness, power, and prosperity
as a nation.

The various issues upon which you were wont
to struggle and have gloriously won success, are presented before you with new force, and completely overshadowed by the grave importance of the issue which is now presented to you. It is a question with immediate and imminent danger to your most sacred rights. The party which you were wont to oppose, abandoned
in its degeneracy by the noble and high-bred men who were once its advocates, are now arrayed against you under the black banner of abolitionism. Flexibly to the compromise, and eternal warfare against the institutions of the South, are boldly and shamelessly inscribed upon its folds. The great charter of our liberties,
the constitution, framed by our patriot fathers,
has been denounced as "odious." The integrity of the Union is threatened. Federalism has once more dared to raise its hideous crest in our midst, and hand in hand with abolitionism, is leading a crusade against the rights of the people and of the States, more bitter, more determined, and more perfidious, because more craftily conducted, than that which called forth
the memorable Kentucky Resolutions of '98, which have ever since been the guide and text-book of every democrat and every lover of constitutional liberty.

Dangers more terrible than any we have yet
encountered, threaten our country, and now,
as ever in times of darkness and difficulty, with outstretched arms imploringly calls you to the rescue of the Union and the protection of the rights secured to us by the constitution.

The time for action has come. The national democrat throughout the whole confederacy are united and firm. The democracy of the North and of the South, of the East and of the West, is battling bravely and triumphantly for the cause of the country, for the cause of Kentucky and of the South. Our sister States
on every side, appeal to us to thunder down, to join them in the glorious vindication
of the right, to take to their noble effort
to preserve the constitution and the Union
from the devastating pollution of abolition fa-naticism, and with them, to carry the banner of democratic reform from Maine to Texas. The attention of the whole country is eagerly and anxiously fixed upon Kentucky, they must do their duty.

We have a standard banner worthy of our cause; one selected for us by Virginia, the mother of States and of statesmen, pure in her patriotism, and unfettered in her democracy;
a champion who has been tried and not found wanting; one who measured by the Jeffersonian
canon, we know to be honest, faithful, and capable; one who has been pointed out to us by the prophetic foresight of our own immortal Jackson; one whose modest words and stern virtues, whose high character and stainless life, shine the more brightly amid the foul slanders and reckless falsehoods which our unscrupulous opponents have poured out upon him with the basest malignity.

A democrat, thoroughly imbued with the principles of Jefferson, united with the stern
inflexibility of "Old Hickory" himself; a citizen, whose services have ever been given to his country's calls; a statesman, whose ability and purity are proven by the record; a union man, pledged by word and deed to maintain the compromise and the rights of the South; a Pierce has been well chosen the bearer of that standard, upon which are emblazoned the principles of our party, appealing to us, like
the inscription upon the sacred banner of Constantine of old, "By this sign thou shalt conquer."

Democrats of Kentucky, by that spirit of '76
which gave freedom to our land, by those signals of '98 which were first kindled upon our own "dark and bloody ground," by our glorious triumph in the past, by our own present greatness and prosperity as a people, by our bright hopes for the future, for the sake of the principles which we advocate, for the preservation of the Union to which they have given
all its strength and glory, for the safety of the institutions so vitally necessary to the welfare and happiness of the South, we call upon you once more to rally in defense of our beloved country, to rescue the Government from the Gophers and Gophers of a weak administration,
to put down once and forever anti-slavery
agitation, and to replace Kentucky in the shin-

THE DEMOCRAT.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
HARNEY & HUGHES.
Office on Third street, East side, between Market and Jefferson.

Democratic Ticket, 1852.

FOR PRESIDENT,
FRANKLIN PIERCE, of N. Hampshire.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
WM. R. KING, of Alabama.

MEMBERS OF THE STATE AT LARGE.
JOHN W. STUBBS, of Kentucky.
BENJAMIN L. HARRIS, of Virginia.

3d District—W. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
4th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
5th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
6th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
7th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
8th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
9th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
10th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.

AND NORTH, SO SOUTH, NO EAST, NO WEST
UNDER THIS CONSTITUTION, BUT A SACRED
MAINTENANCE OF THE COMMON BOND AND
TRUE DEVOTION TO THE COMMON BROTHERHOOD.—FRANKLIN PIERCE.

FOR CONGRESS—7th District.

Culvin Sanders,
OF SHELBY COUNTY.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1852.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION

Takes place on Tuesday, the 2nd day of November. The polls open at 6 o'clock
A. M., and close at 7 o'clock P. M.

We publish in another column, the development of a wonderful fraud attempted by the hired emissaries of whiggery in Ohio. Just read and say if a party so utterly abandoned, is fit to have the control of this government. They believe that shallowness is a passport to popular favor, and that any fraud upon the people is justifiable. We have the entire circular before us, and we shall not fill our columns with it. It is a mean, mendacious, sneaking attack upon Pierce,
and a commendation of Scott as particularly partial to Catholics, and ending with the following hypothetical, lying and sneaking paragraph:

"This appeal is confidential to Catholics, and
comes from one of those who from childhood
watched with interest the progress of the church,
and who are only desirous to further its advancement and prosperity."

This is but a development of the scheme con-
cocted by that Philadelphia caucus. Emissaries are to be hired to slip round and lie worse than the father of lies, in a secret manner. The abolitionists and Catholics are the folks to be seduced
by these private emissaries. Now we appeal to all republican Catholics and Protestants to give an emphatic rebuke to this infamous attempt.

DEMOCRATS!

The Presidential election is at hand. Your country calls you once more to rally to the support of your time honored and ever cherished principles; once more to triumph with those principles, which have given to us freedom as a people, and greatness, power, and prosperity
as a nation.

The various issues upon which you were wont
to struggle and have gloriously won success, are presented before you with new force, and completely overshadowed by the grave importance of the issue which is now presented to you. It is a question with immediate and imminent
danger to your most sacred rights. The party
which you were wont to oppose, abandoned
in its degeneracy by the noble and high-bred
men who were once its advocates, are now ar-
rayed against you under the black banner of abolitionism. Flexibly to the compromise, and
eternal warfare against the institutions of the South, are boldly and shamelessly inscribed upon its folds. The great charter of our liberties,
the constitution, framed by our patriot fathers,
has been denounced as "odious." The integrity of the Union is threatened. Federalism has once more dared to raise its hideous crest in
our midst, and hand in hand with abolitionism,
is leading a crusade against the rights of the people and of the States, more bitter, more determined, and more perfidious, because more
craftily conducted, than that which called forth
the memorable Kentucky Resolutions of '98,
which have ever since been the guide and
text-book of every democrat and every lover of
constitutional liberty.

Dangers more terrible than any we have yet
encountered, threaten our country, and now,
as ever in times of darkness and difficulty, with outstretched arms imploringly calls you to the rescue of the Union and the protection of the rights secured to us by the constitution.

The time for action has come. The national
democrat throughout the whole confederacy
are united and firm. The democracy of the North and of the South, of the East and of the West, is battling bravely and triumphantly for
the cause of the country, for the cause of Kentucky and of the South. Our sister States
on every side, appeal to us to thunder
down, to join them in the glorious vindication
of the right, to take to their noble effort
to preserve the constitution and the Union
from the devastating pollution of abolition fa-naticism, and with them, to carry the banner of democratic reform from Maine to Texas. The attention of the whole country is eagerly and anxiously fixed upon Kentucky, they must do their duty.

We have a standard banner worthy of our cause; one selected for us by Virginia, the mother of States and of statesmen, pure in her patriotism, and unfettered in her democracy;
a champion who has been tried and not found
wanting; one who measured by the Jeffersonian
canon, we know to be honest, faithful,
and capable; one who has been pointed out to us by the prophetic foresight of our own immortal Jackson; one whose modest words and
stern virtues, whose high character and stainless life, shine the more brightly amid the foul slanders and reckless falsehoods which
our unscrupulous opponents have poured out
upon him with the basest malignity.

A democrat, thoroughly imbued with the principles of Jefferson, united with the stern
inflexibility of "Old Hickory" himself; a citizen, whose services have ever been given to his country's calls; a statesman, whose ability
and purity are proven by the record; a union
man, pledged by word and deed to maintain the compromise and the rights of the South; a Pierce has been well chosen the bearer of that standard, upon which are emblazoned the principles of our party, appealing to us, like
the inscription upon the sacred banner of Constantine of old, "By this sign thou shalt conquer."

Democrats of Kentucky, by that spirit of '76
which gave freedom to our land, by those signals of '98 which were first kindled upon our own "dark and bloody ground," by our glorious triumph in the past, by our own present
greatness and prosperity as a people, by our bright hopes for the future, for the sake of
the principles which we advocate, for the preservation of the Union to which they have given
all its strength and glory, for the safety of the institutions so vitally necessary to the welfare
and happiness of the South, we call upon you
once more to rally in defense of our beloved
country, to rescue the Government from the Gophers and Gophers of a weak administration,
to put down once and forever anti-slavery
agitation, and to replace Kentucky in the shin-

THE DEMOCRAT.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
HARNEY & HUGHES.
Office on Third street, East side, between Market and Jefferson.

Democratic Ticket, 1852.

FOR PRESIDENT,
FRANKLIN PIERCE, of N. Hampshire.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
WM. R. KING, of Alabama.

MEMBERS OF THE STATE AT LARGE.
JOHN W. STUBBS, of Kentucky.
BENJAMIN L. HARRIS, of Virginia.

3d District—W. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
4th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
5th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
6th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
7th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
8th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
9th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
10th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.

AND NORTH, SO SOUTH, NO EAST, NO WEST
UNDER THIS CONSTITUTION, BUT A SACRED
MAINTENANCE OF THE COMMON BOND AND
TRUE DEVOTION TO THE COMMON BROTHERHOOD.—FRANKLIN PIERCE.

FOR CONGRESS—7th District.

Culvin Sanders,
OF SHELBY COUNTY.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1852.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION

Takes place on Tuesday, the 2nd day of November. The polls open at 6 o'clock
A. M., and close at 7 o'clock P. M.

We publish in another column, the development of a wonderful fraud attempted by the hired emissaries of whiggery in Ohio. Just read and say if a party so utterly abandoned, is fit to have the control of this government. They believe that shallowness is a passport to popular favor, and that any fraud upon the people is justifiable. We have the entire circular before us, and we shall not fill our columns with it. It is a mean, mendacious, sneaking attack upon Pierce,
and a commendation of Scott as particularly partial to Catholics, and ending with the following hypothetical, lying and sneaking paragraph:

"This appeal is confidential to Catholics, and
comes from one of those who from childhood
watched with interest the progress of the church,
and who are only desirous to further its advancement and prosperity."

This is but a development of the scheme con-
cocted by that Philadelphia caucus. Emissaries are to be hired to slip round and lie worse than the father of lies, in a secret manner. The abolitionists and Catholics are the folks to be seduced
by these private emissaries. Now we appeal to all republican Catholics and Protestants to give
an emphatic rebuke to this infamous attempt.

DEMOCRATS!

The Presidential election is at hand. Your country calls you once more to rally to the support of your time honored and ever cherished principles; once more to triumph with those principles, which have given to us freedom as a people, and greatness, power, and prosperity
as a nation.

The various issues upon which you were wont
to struggle and have gloriously won success, are presented before you with new force, and completely overshadowed by the grave importance of the issue which is now presented to you. It is a question with immediate and imminent
danger to your most sacred rights. The party
which you were wont to oppose, abandoned
in its degeneracy by the noble and high-bred
men who were once its advocates, are now ar-
rayed against you under the black banner of abolitionism. Flexibly to the compromise, and
eternal warfare against the institutions of the South, are boldly and shamelessly inscribed upon its folds. The great charter of our liberties,
the constitution, framed by our patriot fathers,
has been denounced as "odious." The integrity of the Union is threatened. Federalism has once more dared to raise its hideous crest in
our midst, and hand in hand with abolitionism,
is leading a crusade against the rights of the people and of the States, more bitter, more determined, and more perfidious, because more
craftily conducted, than that which called forth
the memorable Kentucky Resolutions of '98,
which have ever since been the guide and
text-book of every democrat and every lover of constitutional liberty.

Dangers more terrible than any we have yet
encountered, threaten our country, and now,
as ever in times of darkness and difficulty, with outstretched arms imploringly calls you to the rescue of the Union and the protection of the rights secured to us by the constitution.

The time for action has come. The national democrat throughout the whole confederacy
are united and firm. The democracy of the North and of the South, of the East and of the West, is battling bravely and triumphantly for
the cause of the country, for the cause of Kentucky and of the South. Our sister States
on every side, appeal to us to thunder
down, to join them in the glorious vindication
of the right, to take to their noble effort
to preserve the constitution and the Union
from the devastating pollution of abolition fa-naticism, and with them, to carry the banner of democratic reform from Maine to Texas. The attention of the whole country is eagerly and anxiously fixed upon Kentucky, they must do their duty.

We have a standard banner worthy of our cause; one selected for us by Virginia, the mother of States and of statesmen, pure in her patriotism, and unfettered in her democracy;
a champion who has been tried and not found
wanting; one who measured by the Jeffersonian
canon, we know to be honest, faithful,
and capable; one who has been pointed out to us by the prophetic foresight of our own immortal Jackson; one whose modest words and
stern virtues, whose high character and stainless life, shine the more brightly amid the foul slanders and reckless falsehoods which
our unscrupulous opponents have poured out
upon him with the basest malignity.

A democrat, thoroughly imbued with the principles of Jefferson, united with the stern
inflexibility of "Old Hickory" himself; a citizen, whose services have ever been given to his country's calls; a statesman, whose ability
and purity are proven by the record; a union
man, pledged by word and deed to maintain the compromise and the rights of the South; a Pierce has been well chosen the bearer of that standard, upon which are emblazoned the principles of our party, appealing to us, like
the inscription upon the sacred banner of Constantine of old, "By this sign thou shalt conquer."

Democrats of Kentucky, by that spirit of '76
which gave freedom to our land, by those signals of '98 which were first kindled upon our own "dark and bloody ground," by our glorious triumph in the past, by our own present
greatness and prosperity as a people, by our bright hopes for the future, for the sake of
the principles which we advocate, for the preservation of the Union to which they have given
all its strength and glory, for the safety of the institutions so vitally necessary to the welfare
and happiness of the South, we call upon you
once more to rally in defense of our beloved
country, to rescue the Government from the Gophers and Gophers of a weak administration,
to put down once and forever anti-slavery
agitation, and to replace Kentucky in the shin-

THE DEMOCRAT.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
HARNEY & HUGHES.
Office on Third street, East side, between Market and Jefferson.

Democratic Ticket, 1852.

FOR PRESIDENT,
FRANKLIN PIERCE, of N. Hampshire.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
WM. R. KING, of Alabama.

MEMBERS OF THE STATE AT LARGE.
JOHN W. STUBBS, of Kentucky.
BENJAMIN L. HARRIS, of Virginia.

3d District—W. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
4th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
5th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
6th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
7th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
8th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
9th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
10th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.

AND NORTH, SO SOUTH, NO EAST, NO WEST
UNDER THIS CONSTITUTION, BUT A SACRED
MAINTENANCE OF THE COMMON BOND AND
TRUE DEVOTION TO THE COMMON BROTHERHOOD.—FRANKLIN PIERCE.

FOR CONGRESS—7th District.

Culvin Sanders,
OF SHELBY COUNTY.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1852.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION

Takes place on Tuesday, the 2nd day of November. The polls open at 6 o'clock
A. M., and close at 7 o'clock P. M.

We publish in another column, the development of a wonderful fraud attempted by the hired emissaries of whiggery in Ohio. Just read and say if a party so utterly abandoned, is fit to have the control of this government. They believe that shallowness is a passport to popular favor, and that any fraud upon the people is justifiable. We have the entire circular before us, and we shall not fill our columns with it. It is a mean, mendacious, sneaking attack upon Pierce,
and a commendation of Scott as particularly partial to Catholics, and ending with the following hypothetical, lying and sneaking paragraph:

"This appeal is confidential to Catholics, and
comes from one of those who from childhood
watched with interest the progress of the church,
and who are only desirous to further its advancement and prosperity."

This is but a development of the scheme con-
cocted by that Philadelphia caucus. Emissaries are to be hired to slip round and lie worse than the father of lies, in a secret manner. The abolitionists and Catholics are the folks to be seduced
by these private emissaries. Now we appeal to all republican Catholics and Protestants to give an emphatic rebuke to this infamous attempt.

DEMOCRATS!

The Presidential election is at hand. Your country calls you once more to rally to the support of your time honored and ever cherished principles; once more to triumph with those principles, which have given to us freedom as a people, and greatness, power, and prosperity
as a nation.

The various issues upon which you were wont
to struggle and have gloriously won success, are presented before you with new force, and completely overshadowed by the grave importance of the issue which is now presented to you. It is a question with immediate and imminent
danger to your most sacred rights. The party
which you were wont to oppose, abandoned
in its degeneracy by the noble and high-bred
men who were once its advocates, are now arrayed against you under the black banner of abolitionism. Flexibly to the compromise, and eternal warfare against the institutions of the South, are boldly and shamelessly inscribed upon its folds. The great charter of our liberties,
the constitution, framed by our patriot fathers,
has been denounced as "odious." The integrity of the Union is threatened. Federalism has once more dared to raise its hideous crest in
our midst, and hand in hand with abolitionism,
is leading a crusade against the rights of the people and of the States, more bitter, more determined, and more perfidious, because more
craftily conducted, than that which called forth
the memorable Kentucky Resolutions of '98,
which have ever since been the guide and
text-book of every democrat and every lover of constitutional liberty.

Dangers more terrible than any we have yet
encountered, threaten our country, and now,
as ever in times of darkness and difficulty, with outstretched arms imploringly calls you to the rescue of the Union and the protection of the rights secured to us by the constitution.

The time for action has come. The national democrat throughout the whole confederacy
are united and firm. The democracy of the North and of the South, of the East and of the West, is battling bravely and triumphantly for
the cause of the country, for the cause of Kentucky and of the South. Our sister States
on every side, appeal to us to thunder
down, to join them in the glorious vindication
of the right, to take to their noble effort
to preserve the constitution and the Union
from the devastating pollution of abolition fa-naticism, and with them, to carry the banner of democratic reform from Maine to Texas. The attention of the whole country is eagerly and anxiously fixed upon Kentucky, they must do their duty.

We have a standard banner worthy of our cause; one selected for us by Virginia, the mother of States and of statesmen, pure in her patriotism, and unfettered in her democracy;
a champion who has been tried and not found
wanting; one who measured by the Jeffersonian
canon, we know to be honest, faithful,
and capable; one who has been pointed out to us by the prophetic foresight of our own immortal Jackson; one whose modest words and
stern virtues, whose high character and stainless life, shine the more brightly amid the foul slanders and reckless falsehoods which
our unscrupulous opponents have poured out
upon him with the basest malignity.

A democrat, thoroughly imbued with the principles of Jefferson, united with the stern
inflexibility of "Old Hickory" himself; a citizen, whose services have ever been given to his country's calls; a statesman, whose ability
and purity are proven by the record; a union
man, pledged by word and deed to maintain the compromise and the rights of the South; a Pierce has been well chosen the bearer of that standard, upon which are emblazoned the principles of our party, appealing to us, like
the inscription upon the sacred banner of Constantine of old, "By this sign thou shalt conquer."

Democrats of Kentucky, by that spirit of '76
which gave freedom to our land, by those signals of '98 which were first kindled upon our own "dark and bloody ground," by our glorious triumph in the past, by our own present
greatness and prosperity as a people, by our bright hopes for the future, for the sake of
the principles which we advocate, for the preservation of the Union to which they have given
all its strength and glory, for the safety of the institutions so vitally necessary to the welfare
and happiness of the South, we call upon you
once more to rally in defense of our beloved
country, to rescue the Government from the Gophers and Gophers of a weak administration,
to put down once and forever anti-slavery
agitation, and to replace Kentucky in the shin-

THE DEMOCRAT.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
HARNEY & HUGHES.
Office on Third street, East side, between Market and Jefferson.

Democratic Ticket, 1852.

FOR PRESIDENT,
FRANKLIN PIERCE, of N. Hampshire.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
WM. R. KING, of Alabama.

MEMBERS OF THE STATE AT LARGE.
JOHN W. STUBBS, of Kentucky.
BENJAMIN L. HARRIS, of Virginia.

3d District—W. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
4th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
5th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
6th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
7th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
8th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
9th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.
10th " J. H. HARRIS, of Kentucky.

AND NORTH, SO SOUTH, NO EAST, NO WEST
UNDER THIS CONSTITUTION, BUT A SACRED
MAINTENANCE OF THE COMMON BOND AND
TRUE DEVOTION TO THE COMMON BROTHERHOOD.—FRANKLIN PIERCE.

FOR CONGRESS—7th District.

Culvin Sanders,
OF SHELBY COUNTY.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1852.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION

Takes place on Tuesday, the 2nd day of November. The polls open at 6 o'clock
A. M., and close at 7 o'clock P. M.

We publish in another column, the development of a wonderful fraud attempted by the hired emissaries of whiggery in Ohio. Just read and say if a party so utterly abandoned, is fit to have the control of this government. They believe that shallowness is a passport to popular favor, and that any fraud upon the people is justifiable. We have the entire circular before us, and we shall not fill our columns with it. It is a mean, mendacious, sneaking attack upon Pierce,
and a commendation of Scott as particularly partial to Catholics, and ending with the following hypothetical, lying and sneaking paragraph:

"This appeal is confidential to Catholics, and
comes from one of those who from childhood
watched with interest the progress of the church,
and who are only desirous to further its advancement and prosperity."

This is but a development of the scheme con-
cocted by that Philadelphia caucus. Emissaries

the Carr, 1000 passengers going out by 17 days	claiming 1000 dollars	CASSEDAY & HOPKINS,
---	---	--------------------------------